Billboard

Did you get a chance to see our NEW billboard? It was located on Cippenham lane! Despite the grey skies, it definitely lit up Slough!

UEFA EURO 2021

Congratulations to those with teams still standing! With the final approaching which team do you think will win!? Did you pull the winning team from the bowl!?! Good luck to everyone!

Day Office

If you spend a lot of time on the road and perhaps only need a desk for a couple of hours or while you are in the Slough area, this is ideal for you!

Alternatively if you need to work away for your team to focus of the day, this may be perfect for you!

Check out our latest testimonial

'me and my colleague are really happy with the whole service from the start.

The reception team has been really kind and supportive where needed.

The office is perfect clean, presentable and caters for everything that we need. The bonus is that we are so close to the high street and lots of places to go for lunch.

I would recommend this office to my colleagues if needed'

Coronavirus update
